

Head Start

§303.210(b) requires the State lead agency to participate as a representative under section 642(b)(1)(C)(viii) of the Head Start Act, on the State Advisory Council on Early Childhood Education and Care established under the Head Start Act.

Mississippi Meets these Requirements

- 1) Michele Masterson, DC in District I, meets quarterly with ICS Head Start for collaborative meetings.
- 2) Kana Crumby, DC in District II, is on the Health Advisory Board for MAP. She also meets quarterly ICS Head Start for collaborative meetings.
- 3) Val Smith, DC in District III, is on the Health Advisory Board for CMI (Winona). She also meets quarterly with Bolivar County Community Action, Washington County Opportunities, Central Mississippi Incorporated, MAP, Friends of Children of Mississippi, Sunflower/Humphrey Counties Progress and Child Development Institute.
- 4) Jeff Kresge, DC in District VIII, is affiliated with Pinebelt Association for Community Enhancement. He has staff LaTonya Lewis affiliated with Brown Circle Head Start and Christine Bellew with Pearl River Valley Opportunity Early Head Start.
- 5) Anthony Deaver, DC in District VI, is on a committee with Child Development Technique at Meridian Community College.
- 6) Jimmy Faye McCarty, DC in District IV, meets quarterly with ICS Head Start for collaborative meetings.
- 7) Michael Criuthird, DC in District IX, serves on the board for Singing River Education Association, Head Start Advisory Board which meets quarterly and Pearl River Valley Opportunities, Inc, Early Head Start/Head Start Community Partners Council which also meets quarterly.
- 8) Bridget Pickett, SC in District IX, is on the Jackson County Civic Action Agency, Head Start Health Advisory Council which meets quarterly.
- 9) Part C Coordinator, Susan Boone, is a member of the SECAC board, and collaborates with Holly Spivey, Office of the Governor-Head Start Liaison.
- 10) Several Head Start administrators are SICC Board Members.